

Outdoor Learning / Forest School/ Nature and Health practitioner

EcoWild
You are Nature

EcoWild is looking to meet the person who will offer their best into our well established relationships in outdoor learning, nature and health in North East Somerset. The sites are Greyfield Woods, Farrington Gurney and Timsbury Schools. Initially for 12 hours a week in termtime (delivery of sessions is 8 hours of this; 8.30-3.30pm Tuesday and 1.10-3.10 Wednesday) with potential to increase.

Rate: £27k year pro rata; approx £14/hour freelance essential

Positive, resilient, creative and fun

Strong outdoor skills in all seasons; i.e. Fire, bush craft, shelter creation, knife & tool work

Forest school, Bushcraft, IOL or similar qualification

Some knowledge of native wildlife, plant and flower ID

Experience facilitating groups of adults and children

Professional, reliable and considerate

Ability to lead and plan sessions, take the initiative and instigate new developments

IT proficiency

First aid qualified (ideally outdoor)

Wish to work outdoors all year round

Ability to work term-time hours with hours by arrangement in schools holidays desirable;

Skills in natural & arts crafts, foraging, self-sufficiency

Experience in nature based health and wellbeing delivery

Experience in Health care including mental health

Experience of running a social enterprise

Experience of statutory/ third sector partnerships

Editing and design skills for posters / fliers social media, advertising and communications expertise

Ideally you will live to the south of Bristol/ west of Bath, for ease of travel to sites sometimes for short sessions.

Please complete the application form attached

EcoWild is committed to promoting a diverse and inclusive community and is keen to hear from people from all ethnic backgrounds.

Closing date: 24th August

Starts September (dependent on candidate availability)